

Ferowza Swapnil

Research Interests: Higher education policy, Disparities in access to higher education, Social integration of marginalized communities

Ferowza serves as the Chief Teaching Fellow and Program Coordinator for the MA in Education at the Asian University for Women. She holds a bachelor's degree in Economics with a minor in Mathematics from AUW and a Master's in Economic Policy in Global Markets from Central European University, where she cultivated her interest in Education Policy. In addition to overseeing the MA in Education program, Ferowza leads AUW's Afghan Online Learning Project Roshini e Omid. She teaches courses on Curriculum Development and Global Education Policy.

Tansum Tanha

Research Interests: Educational equity, Policy analysis, Innovative educational designs and practices in conflict zones

Tanha is a Teaching Fellow in the MA in Education program at AUW. Alongside her teaching role, she conducts AUW's institutional research and manages the alumnae database. Before earning her master's from Central European University she worked at the BRAC Institute of Educational Development, promoting early childhood education and play-based learning. Tanha also serves as Project Manager for the UNICEF-funded Upper Primary Teachers Training Program in the Rohingya Refugee Camps, overseeing the training of over 1000 educators in this humanitarian setting.